Presiding Officer - Decorum, Order, and Debate

1-1. The presiding officer of the Senate is the president, and the presiding officer of the House of Representatives is the speaker. The presiding officer of each house shall take the chair on every legislative day at the hour to which that house adjourned at the last sitting. After call to order, prayer by the chaplain, and roll call, a report on the journal for the preceding legislative day shall be given in the presence of a quorum, and each house shall proceed with the regular order of business.

1-2. The presiding officer, or any member acting as presiding officer, of each house shall preserve order and decorum, and in case of disturbance or disorderly conduct, may order the galleries or lobbies to be cleared.

1-3. The presiding officer of each house has general control and direction of the hall, chamber, rooms, passages, and corridors of the house over which he presides. Reporters on assignment in either house are subject to placement by the presiding officer.

1-4. The presiding officer of each house shall decide all questions of order, subject to an appeal by any member seconded by two other members. No member may speak more than once on an appeal without the consent of a majority of the house of which he is a member.

1-5. When a member desires to speak he shall rise and address the presiding officer and, being recognized, shall speak standing in his place unless the presiding officer grants permission to speak from some other place on the floor. When two or more members rise at the same time the presiding officer shall name the member who is to speak first.

1-6. When a member has been called to order, he shall sit down until the presiding officer determines whether he is in order or not. If the member is called to order for words spoken in debate, the language excepted to shall be taken down in writing by the chief clerk or secretary.

1-7. Questions of privilege are: first, those affecting the collective rights, safety, dignity, and integrity of the proceedings of either house; and second, those affecting the rights, reputation, and conduct of individual members of either house in their capacity as members. A question of privilege

1-8. The presiding officer of each house shall sign all subpoenas approved or issued by the house over which he presides.

1-9. (1) A communication or paper shall be addressed to the presiding officer and shall bear the name of the person submitting it. When the reading of a paper is called for and a member objects, it shall be determined by a vote of the house without debate. This subsection does not apply to bills or to communications from the governor or the other house.

(2) A paper for or against proposed legislation may not be placed on the desks of the members or circulated within the chamber unless the person responsible has signed it and has received permission from the presiding officer to distribute it in the house concerned.

1-10. When the presiding officer is presiding, he shall vote as any other member and may not vote a second time.

JOINT RULES

CHAPTER 2

Meetings, Quorums, and Attendance

2-1. The hour of meeting of the Senate and House of Representatives may be as ordered by the Senate or House.

2-2. Lobbying on the floor of the Senate or House of Representatives is prohibited during the session and within one hour prior to the commencement of a session and within one-half hour after recess or adjournment.

2-4. Neither house shall, without the consent of the other, adjourn or recess for more than three days, nor to any other place than that in which the two houses shall be sitting (Montana Constitution, Art. V, Sec. 10(5)).

2-5. A majority of each house shall constitute a quorum to do business, but a smaller number may adjourn from day to day and compel the attendance of absent members, in such manner and under such penalties as each house may prescribe (Montana Constitution, Art. V, Sec.

JOINT RULES

2-6. Unless he is excused, a member of the House or Senate shall be present at every sitting of the house of which he is a member.

2-7. In the absence of a quorum, a majority of members present in either house may compel the attendance of absent members by ordering a call of the house of which they are members.

2-8. If a quorum is present, five members of the Senate may order a call of the Senate, and fifteen members of the House of Representatives may order a call of the House.

2-9. On a call of either house, a member who refuses to attend may be arrested by the sergeant-at-arms or any other person, as the majority of such members present shall direct. When the attendance of an absent member is secured after a call of either house, if the house of which he is a member refuses to excuse his absence, he shall not be paid any expense payments during his absence and is liable for the expenses incurred in procuring his attendance.

2-10. During a call of either house, all business of that house shall be suspended. After a call has been ordered, no motion is in order except a motion to adjourn or remove the call. The call may be removed by a two-thirds vote.

2-11. If either house is in session upon a given day, whether or not the other house is in session, that day shall constitute a legislative day.

CHAPTER 3

Legislative Employees

3-1. The legislature shall prescribe the compensation of the employees of each house by joint resolution. Each house shall prescribe the duties of its officers and employees, and no payment shall be made from the state treasury, or be in any way authorized to any such person, except to an acting officer or employee elected or appointed in pursuance of law.

3-2. The Legislative Council shall be responsible for maintaining personnel files.

3-3. The committee on legislative administration of each house shall appoint a secretary for a standing or special committee on recommendation of the committee chairman, subject to the approval of the respective house. A secretary for a standing or special committee is immediately responsible to the committee chairman, but when not occupied with the duties of a committee, shall work under the direction of the chief stenographer of each house. The Legislative Council shall hire all engrossing and enrolling staff, who are under the direction of the bills committee.

JOINT RULES

3-4. The presiding officer and the majority and minority floor leader of each house may each appoint a private secretary.

JOINT RULES

All staff employed jointly shall be appointed by the joint Legislative Administration Committees.

3-7. The duties of the engrossing and enrolling staff are:

(a) to engross or enroll all bills delivered to them within 48 hours after they have been received, unless further time is granted, in writing, by the presiding officer of the house in which the bill originated;

(b) to correct clerical errors, absent the objection of the sponsor of a bill or amendment and the secretary of the Senate or chief clerk of the House of Representatives, in any bill or amendment originating in the house by which they are employed. Clerical errors such as the following may be corrected:

(i) errors in spelling

(ii) errors in numbering sections

(iii) adding or deleting underlin-

JOINT RULES

ing or lines through matter to be stricken

(iv) material copied incorrectly from the Montana Code Annotated.

The secretary of the Senate or chief clerk of the House and the sponsor of the bill or amendment shall be notified in writing of the clerical correction. An objection to the correction may be registered by the secretary of the Senate, chief clerk of the House, or sponsor by filing it in writing within 24 hours after receipt of the notice.

When a committee is the sponsor of a bill, any member thereof so designated by the chairman may be the principal sponsor for the purpose of this section. When a committee has proposed an amendment, the chairman is the principal sponsor for the purpose of this section.

3-8. (1) The sergeants-at-arms are responsible to the presiding officers of their respective houses. Their duties are to:

(a) maintain order under the direction of the presiding officer;

(b) execute commands and serve all processes;

JOINT RULES

(c) receive, distribute, and have custody of supplies.

3-9. The assistant sergeants-at-arms, doorkeepers, watchmen, janitors, pages, and other employees responsible for general housekeeping functions are immediately responsible to the sergeant-at-arms, subject to the general supervision of the presiding officer.

3-10. The duty of the chaplain of each house is to open each day's session with a prayer.

3-11. A legislative aide is a person who has registered with the clerk of the House or secretary of the Senate and has been issued a distinctive identification form such as a name tag. Such identification may be issued only upon receiving written verification from a member that the person involved is serving him as an aide. A person may not represent himself to be a legislative aide unless he carries such identification. The sergeants-at-arms and doorkeepers shall enforce this rule. Legislative aides must be of legal age unless otherwise approved by the presiding officer.

No member may designate more than one aide without the approval of the rules committee of the house involved.

Qualifications for legislative interns are specified in Title 5, chapter 6, MCA.

3-12. An employee, legislative aide, or legislative intern of either house is prohibited from lobbying as defined in Section 5-7-102(1), MCA. However, such person may testify before a committee of either house on the request of the committee. Any person violating this rule shall be discharged.

3-13. Disputes or complaints involving the competency or decorum of a legislative employee shall be referred to the committee on legislative administration of the house by which the employee is employed. The committee, in its discretion, may dismiss, suspend, or retain the employee. The committee on legislative administration shall periodically review the roster of employees and shall dismiss surplus employees.

3-14. The offices of the Legislative Council shall serve both the Senate and House of Representatives as required.

The Council staff shall prepare payrolls for certification and signature by the presiding officer and prepare a monthly financial report and distribute the report to legislative leaders in each house and to members of the Senate committee on finance and claims and House committee on appropriations.

3-15. Contracts for purchase or lease of equipment and supplies made during the legislative session shall be made on the approval of the committee on legislative administration of each house, subject to the review of the presiding officer of the respective house. Purchase orders shall be issued by Legislative Council staff and accounting records kept in that office.

JOINT RULES

CHAPTER 4 Order of Business

4-1. After prayer, roll call, and report on the journal, the order of business of the Senate and House of Representatives is as follows:

- (1) Communications and petitions
- (2) Reports of standing committees
- (3) Reports of select committees
- (4) Messages from the governor
- (5) Messages from the other house
- (6) Motions
- (7) First reading and commitment of bills
- (8) Second reading of bills (Committee of the Whole)
- (9) Third reading of bills and consent calendar bills
- (10) Unfinished business
- (11) Special orders of the day
- (12) Announcement of committee meetings.

JOINT RULES

To revert to or pass to a new order of business requires only a majority vote. Unless otherwise specified in the motion to recess, the house involved shall revert to Order of Business No. 1 when reconvening after a recess.

JOINT RULES

CHAPTER 5 Motions

5-1. When a motion is made it shall be restated by the presiding officer and, if requested by the presiding officer or a member, shall be reduced to writing and read aloud. A motion may be withdrawn by the member making it at any time before it is amended or voted upon.

5-2. When a question is under debate no motion may be made except the following privileged and subsidiary motions, which have precedence in the order listed:

- (1) to adjourn
- (2) for a call of the house
- (3) to recess
- (4) question of privilege
- (5) to lay on the table
- (6) for the previous question
- (7) to postpone to a certain day
- (8) to refer or commit
- (9) to amend

JOINT RULES

(10) to postpone indefinitely.

A question may be indefinitely postponed by a majority roll call vote of all members present and voting. When a bill or resolution is postponed indefinitely, it is finally rejected and may not be acted upon again during the biennium except upon a motion of reconsideration made pursuant to Rule 5-4.

5-3. No motion or proposition on a subject different from that under consideration shall be admitted under color of amendment or substitute.

5-4. Any member may, on the day the vote was taken or on the next day the house in which the action was taken is in session, move to reconsider the question. A motion to reconsider may not be withdrawn after such next legislative day without the unanimous consent of the house concerned, and thereafter any member may call it up for consideration; however, a motion to reconsider made after the 54th day of the session shall be disposed of when made. A motion to recall a bill from the other house constitutes notice to reconsider and shall be acted on as a motion to reconsider. A motion to reconsider or to recall a bill from the other house may be made only under Order of Business No. 6 and under that order of business takes precedence over all motions except motions to recess or adjourn.

5-5. When a motion to reconsider is laid on the table, a two-thirds majority is required to take it from the table. When a motion to reconsider fails, the question is finally and conclusively settled.

5-6. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this rule, the effect of moving the previous question, if adopted, is to close debate immediately, to prevent the moving of amendments or other subsidiary motions, and to bring to vote promptly the immediately pending main question and the adhering subsidiary motions, whether on appeal or otherwise.

(2) When the previous question is ordered on any debatable question on which there has been no debate, the question may be debated for one-half hour, one-half of such time to be given to the proponents and one-half to the opponents.

5-7. A call of the house is not in order after the previous question is ordered unless it appears upon an actual count by the presiding officer that a quorum is not present.

JOINT RULES

5-8. The following motions are not debatable:

- (1) to adjourn
- (2) for a call of the house
- (3) to recess
- (4) for parliamentary inquiry
- (5) for suspension of the rules
- (6) to lay on the table
- (7) for the previous question
- (8) to limit, extend the limits of, or to close debate
- (9) to amend an undebatable motion
- (10) to divide a question
- (11) to pass business in Committee of the Whole
- (12) to take from the table
- (13) a decision of the presiding officer, unless appealed or unless he submits the question to the house for advice or decision
- (14) all incidental motions, such as motions relating to voting or other questions of a general procedural nature.

5-9. A member may move to divide a question if it includes two or more propositions so distinct in substance that if one thing is taken away a substantive question will remain.

5-10. No more than one amendment and no more than one substitute motion may be made to a motion. This rule permits the main motion and two modifying motions.

JOINT RULES

CHAPTER 6 Bills and Resolutions

A. Form of Bills -- Definition of Resolutions -- General Provisions

6-1. The only types of instruments other than bills which may be introduced in either house of the legislature are as follows:

(1) A simple resolution is a formalized motion passed by one house only and bears the heading "House Resolution" or "Senate Resolution". It may be used only to adopt or amend the rules of one house, to make recommendations concerning the districting and apportionment plan as provided by Article V, section 14, subsection (3), of the Montana Constitution, or to provide for the internal affairs of the house adopting it. It does not require three readings or a roll call vote. A member offering a simple resolution may read it in his place before introduction. When a simple resolution has been introduced, it shall be referred to a committee. Final action shall be taken on the Committee of the Whole report. The transmittal of copies of simple resolutions is the responsibility of the chief clerk or secretary of the house of origin.

A copy of every simple resolution is to be transmitted after adoption to the secretary of state by the secretary of the Senate or chief clerk of the House.

(2) A joint resolution must be adopted by both houses and is not approved by the governor. It may be used to:

(a) express desire, opinion, sympathy, or request of the legislature;

(b) request an interim study by a legislative subcommittee;

(c) adopt or amend the joint rules;

(d) set salaries and other terms of employment for Legislative employees;

(e) approve construction of a state building under section 18-2-102 or 20-25-302, MCA;

(f) deal with disasters and emergencies under Title 10, specifically as provided in sections 10-3-302(3), 10-3-303(3), 10-3-303(4), and 10-3-505(5), MCA;

(g) submit a negotiated settlement under section 39-31-305(3), MCA;

JOINT RULES

(h) declare or terminate an energy emergency under section 90-4-310, MCA;

(i) ratify or propose amendments to the United States Constitution; or

(j) advise or request the repeal, amendment, or adoption of a rule in the Administrative Rules of Montana.

Except as otherwise provided in these rules or the Constitution of the State of Montana, a joint resolution is treated in all respects as a bill.

A copy of every joint resolution is to be transmitted after adoption to the secretary of state by the secretary of the Senate or chief clerk of the House.

6-2. All bill drafting requests shall require a legislative sponsor. Bills shall be printed on paper with numbered lines and shall be introduced in triplicate. Bills shall be numbered at the foot of each page (except page 1) and the original copy shall have a white cover of a substantial material. In sections amending existing statutes, matter to be stricken out shall be indicated with a line through the words or part to be deleted, and new matter shall be underlined. Sections of the Montana Code Annotated repealed or amended in a bill shall be stated in the title, except for general appropriation bills and bills for the codification and general revision of the laws. Introduced bills will be reproduced on white paper and distributed to legislators.

6-3. No bill, except general appropriation bills and bills for the codification and general revision of the laws, shall contain more than one subject, which shall be clearly expressed in the title. The enacting clause of every law shall be as follows: "Be it enacted by the legislature of the state of Montana".

A bill shall be used to propose amendments to the Constitution of the State of Montana and shall not be subject to the veto of the governor (Montana Constitution, Art. VI, Sec. 10(1)).

6-4. All appropriation bills shall originate in the House of Representatives.

The general appropriation bills shall embrace nothing but appropriations for the ordinary expenses of the legislative, executive, and judicial branches of state government, interest on public debt, and for public schools. All other appropriations shall be made by separate bills, each embracing but one subject (Montana Constitution, Art. V, Sec.

JOINT RULES

11(4)). Appropriation bills for the operation of the legislature shall be introduced by the chairman of the House committee on appropriations.

6-5. Every statute, unless a different time is prescribed therein, takes effect on October 1 following its passage and approval, except one that provides for appropriation by the legislature of public funds for a public purpose, which takes effect on July 1 following its passage and approval unless a different time is prescribed therein. Every joint resolution, unless a different time is prescribed therein, takes effect on its passage (Sections 1-2-201 and 1-2-202, MCA).

B. Introduction -- Bill Limit

6-6. (1) A legislator may not request more than five bills from the Legislative Council nor may a legislator introduce more than five bills. This limit does not apply to:

(a) bills requested prior to the convening date of each session;

(b) interim committee bills;

(c) state agency bills;

(d) code commissioner bills;

JOINT RULES

- (e) resolutions;
- (f) standing committee bills;
- (g) appropriation bills; or
- (h) revenue bills.

(2) Bills and joint resolutions will be checked by the staff of the Legislative Council prior to introduction for proper format, style, and legal form. Bills will be stored on the automated bill drafting equipment, printed, and delivered in triplicate to the requesting legislator. A stamp shall be affixed to the original bill cover and signed to indicate Council review. If such stamp is not affixed, the bill may not be introduced.

(3) During a session a bill may be introduced by endorsing it with the name of a member and presenting it to the chief clerk of the House of Representatives or secretary of the Senate in triplicate. Bills or joint resolutions may be sponsored jointly by Senate and House members. A jointly sponsored bill shall be introduced in the house in which the legislator whose name appears first on the bill is a member. The chief joint sponsor's name shall appear immediately to the right of the first sponsor's name. Bills, joint resolutions, and simple resolutions shall be numbered consecutively in each session of the legislature in separate series in the order of their receipt.

(4) Any bill proposed by a legislative committee or introduced by request of an administrative or executive agency or department shall be so indicated following the names of the sponsors, "By Request of the (Name of agency or committee)".

(5) Bills may be preintroduced, numbered, and reproduced prior to a legislative session by the staff of the Legislative Council. Actual signatures may appear on the face of the preintroduced bill, or signatures may be obtained on a consent form from the Legislative Council and the sponsor's name printed on the bill. Additional sponsors may be added on motion of the chief sponsor at any time prior to a standing committee report on the bill. These names will be forwarded to the Legislative Council to be included on the face of the bill following standing committee approval.

All preintroduced bills will be made available to the public.

6-7. The following schedule must be followed for submission of drafting requests and introduction of bills and resolutions.

	Request Deadline 5:00 P.M.	Introduction Deadline 5:00 P.M.
	Legislative Day
General Bills and Resolutions	10	14
	(or 2 legislative days after delivery if delivery is after 14th day)

Committee Bills and Resolutions	36	40
Committee Revenue Bills	62	66
Appropriation Bills	No deadline	No deadline
Interim Study Resolutions	No deadline	No deadline
Bills repealing or directing the amendment or adoption of Administrative Rules and Joint Resolutions advising or requesting the repeal, amendment, or adoption of Administrative Rules	No deadline	No deadline

6-8. No bill may be introduced or received in a house after that house has finally rejected a bill during that session designed to accomplish the same purpose save upon approval by the rules committee of the house in which the bill is offered for introduction or reception.

Failure to override a veto does not constitute final rejection.

6-9. At least three-fourths of a standing committee must consent to the introduction of a committee bill.

C. First Reading and Referral

6-10. No motion affecting a bill is in order on its first reading except as provided in Joint Rule 6-6(5).

Upon introduction or reception of a bill, the chief clerk of the House or the secretary of the Senate shall publicly post upon a listing that bill by a summary of its title in the house of origin and by a summary of its title and by its history in the second house, together with a notation of the committee to which it has been assigned, and such posting shall constitute the first reading of the bill.

6-11. No bill shall be considered or become a law unless referred to a committee and returned therefrom.

JOINT RULES

6-12. Upon introduction or reception of a bill, it shall be referred to a committee by the presiding officer.

6-13. A bill may be rereferred at any time before its passage.

D. Amendments and Substitute Bills

6-14. No law shall be revised or amended or the provisions thereof extended by reference to its title only, but so much thereof as is revised, amended, or extended shall be reenacted and published at length.

6-15. No law shall be passed except by bill, and no bill shall be so altered or amended on its passage through either house as to change its original purpose (Montana Constitution, Art. V, Sec. 11(1)).

6-16. A committee may recommend that every clause in a bill be changed and that entirely new matter be substituted so long as the new matter is relevant to the title and subject of the original bill. A substitute bill shall be considered as an amendment and not as a new bill.

6-17. The proper form of reporting a substitute bill by a committee is to propose amendments to strike out all of the bill following the enacting clause and to substitute the new bill, recommending also any necessary changes in the title. If a committee report recommending a substitute for a bill originating in the other house is adopted, the substitute bill shall be printed and reproduced.

6-18. Amendments to a bill by the second house shall not be further amended by the house in which the bill originated, but must either be accepted or rejected. If the amendments are rejected, a conference committee may be requested by the house in which the bill originated. If the amendments are accepted and the bill is of a type requiring more than a majority vote for passage, the bill shall again be placed on third reading in the house of origin. The vote on third reading after concurrence in amendments is the vote of the house of origin that must be used to determine if the required number of votes has been cast.

6-19. If a majority of a house adopts a recommendation for the passage of a bill originating in that house after it has been returned from a committee with amendments, the bill shall be reproduced on yellow paper with all amendments incorporated into the copies.

JOINT RULES

If the bill has been returned from a committee without amendments, only the first sheet need be reproduced on yellow paper, and the remainder of the text incorporated by reference to the preceding version of the entire bill. Bills referred to the bills committee of the house of origin for reproduction must be reported within three days unless further time is granted by that house.

E. Engrossing and Enrolling

6-20. When a bill has been reported favorably by Committee of the Whole of the house of origin and the report has been adopted, the bill shall be engrossed under the direction of the bills committee, and when reported correctly engrossed by the committee shall be placed on the calendar for third reading on the succeeding legislative day. Committee of the Whole amendments shall be included in the engrossed bill. Copies of the engrossed bill to be distributed to legislators will be reproduced on blue paper. If a bill is unamended by the Committee of the Whole and contains no clerical errors, it may be engrossed without reprinting, and only the first sheet need be reproduced on blue paper with the remainder of the text incorporated by reference to the preceding version of the entire bill.

JOINT RULES

If a bill is amended by the standing committee or Committee of the Whole in the second house, the amendments will be included in a salmon-colored reference bill and distributed in the second house for third reading consideration. The amendments will also be reproduced and attached to the reference bill. If the bill passes on third reading, copies of the reference bill and second house amendments will be distributed in the original house.

6-21. When a bill has passed both houses it shall be enrolled under the direction of the bills committee of the house of origin. An original and two duplicate printed copies of the bill shall be enrolled, free from all corrections and errors, with a margin of two inches at the top and one inch on each side. In sections amending existing statutes, new matter shall be underlined and matter stricken with a line through it shall be omitted. The original and two copies of the bill shall be red lined. The history of the bill shall also be enrolled and placed with the bill in a white manuscript cover, upon which is written the number of the bill and the title. The Legislative Council staff shall file a copy of the history with the law library.

JOINT RULES

When the enrolling has been completed, the bill shall be examined by the sponsor and the bills committee and reported correctly enrolled.

The correctly enrolled bill shall be delivered to the presiding officer of the house in which the bill originated. The presiding officer shall sign the original and two copies of each bill delivered to him not later than the next legislative day after it has been reported correctly enrolled, unless the bill is delivered on the last legislative day, in which event it shall be signed that day. The fact of signing shall be announced by the presiding officer and entered upon the journal no later than the next legislative day. At any time after the report of a bill correctly enrolled and before the signing, if a member signifies his desire to examine the bill, he shall be permitted to do so. The bill shall then be transmitted to the other house where the same procedure shall be followed.

A bill that has passed both houses of the legislature by the 90th day may be enrolled; clerically corrected by the presiding officers, if necessary; signed by the presiding officers; and delivered to the governor not later than 5 days after the 90th legislative day. All journal entries authorized under this rule will be entered on the journal for the 90th day.

The original and two copies signed by the presiding officer of each house shall be presented by the bills committee to the governor. The bills committee shall take a receipt from the governor and shall report to the house the day and hour of such presentation, which shall be entered in the journal. The original shall be filed with the secretary of state. Signed copies with chapter numbers assigned pursuant to Section 5-11-204, MCA, shall be filed with the clerk of the supreme court and the Legislative Council.

F. Second Reading -- Committee of the Whole

6-22. All bills, except consent calendar bills, which have been reported by a committee, accepted by the house concerned, and reproduced shall be posted on the calendar for consideration by Committee of the Whole. The secretary of the Senate or chief clerk of the House shall record the time each bill is received and the time the bill is placed on members' desks. Until the 50th legislative day, one day must elapse between the time a committee approved bill is placed on the members' desks and consideration by Committee of the Whole. Bills shall be arranged on the calendar in numerical order unless they are companion bills or are otherwise ordered by the house or Committee of the Whole of the house concerned.

6-23. Every bill considered in Committee of the Whole shall be read by a summary of its title. Proposed amendments shall be considered; then the bill shall be considered in its entirety.

All Committee of the Whole amendments shall be prepared and delivered to the clerk for reading before the amendment is voted on. The amendment form will include the date and time of the amendment. Each rejected proposed amendment shall be identified and kept in the office of the chief clerk of the House or secretary of the Senate. Upon adjournment, the text of such amendments shall be delivered to the state archives.

6-24. Prior to adoption of a Committee of the Whole report, a member may move to segregate a bill. If the motion prevails, the bill remains on second reading.

6-25. When a Committee of the Whole report on a bill is rejected, the bill shall remain on second reading.

JOINT RULES

6-26. Either house may resolve itself into a Committee of the Whole by approval of a motion for that purpose. So far as may be applicable, the rules governing each house shall be observed when that house resolves itself into a Committee of the Whole, except as follows:

(1) The only motions in order are to:

(a) amend;

(b) recommend passage or nonpassage;

(c) recommend concurrence or non-concurrence;

(d) indefinitely postpone;

(e) pass consideration;

(f) rise;

(g) rise and report; or

(h) rise and report progress and ask leave to sit again.

(2) The committee may not appoint subcommittees.

(3) The committee may not punish its members for misconduct, but may report disorder to the house concerned.

(4) Unless otherwise prescribed by either house before going into Committee of the Whole, a member may speak as often as he is recognized and for as long each time as is allowed in debate in the particular house.

6-27. After a Committee of the Whole has been formed, the presiding officer shall appoint a chairman to preside. Upon resuming the chair, the presiding officer shall receive the report of the chairman of the committee and the house shall take action on the report.

G. Third Reading -- Consent Calendar -- Governor's Veto

6-28. No bill shall become a law except by vote of a majority of all the members present and voting in each house. On final passage the vote shall be taken by ayes and noes, and the names of those voting entered on the journal (Montana Constitution, Art. V, Sec. 11(1) and (2)).

Any vote in one house on a bill proposing an amendment to the Montana Constitution where the mathematical possibility exists of obtaining the necessary two-thirds vote of the legislature will cause the bill to progress as though it had received the majority vote.

6-29. Except for consent calendar bills, every bill shall be read three times prior to passage, either by title or by summary of title as provided in these rules. The first reading shall be as prescribed in Joint Rule 6-10; the second prior to debate in Committee of the Whole; and the third prior to final passage. No bill shall receive more than one reading on the same day except on the last legislative day. No amendment may be offered on the third reading.

6-30. (1) Each bill passed by the legislature, except bills proposing amendments to the Montana Constitution, bills ratifying proposed amendments to the United States Constitution, resolutions, and referendum measures of the legislature, shall be submitted to the governor for his signature. If he does not sign or veto the bill within 5 days after its delivery to him if the legislature is in session or within 25 days if the legislature is adjourned, it shall become law. The governor shall return a vetoed bill to the legislature with a statement of his reasons therefor.

JOINT RULES

(2) The governor may return any bill to the legislature with his recommendation for amendment. If the legislature passes the bill in accordance with the governor's recommendation, it shall again return the bill to the governor for his reconsideration. The governor shall not return a bill for amendment a second time.

(3) If after receipt of a veto message, two-thirds of the members of each house present approve the bill, it shall become law.

(4) If the legislature is not in session when the governor vetoes a bill, he shall return the bill with his reasons therefor to the legislature as provided by law. The legislature may be polled on a bill approved by two-thirds of the members present or reconvened to reconsider any bill so vetoed. (Montana Constitution, Art. VI, Sec. 10.)

(5) The governor may veto items in appropriation bills, and in such instances the procedure shall be the same as upon veto of an entire bill (Montana Constitution, Art. VI, Sec. 10).

6-31. Upon receipt of a veto message the presiding officer shall read the message. After the reading a member may move that the governor's veto shall be overridden. A vote on the motion shall be determined by roll call. If two-thirds of the members present vote "aye", the veto is overridden. If two-thirds of the members present do not vote "aye", the veto is sustained.

6-32. If the governor returns a bill to the originating house with his recommendations for amendment, such house shall reconsider the bill under its rules relating to amendment offered in Committee of the Whole. The bill is then subject to the following procedures:

(a) The originating house shall transmit to the second house, for consideration under its rules relating to amendments in Committee of the Whole, the bill and the originating house's approval or disapproval of the governor's recommendations.

(b) If both houses approve the governor's recommendations, the bill shall be returned to the governor for his reconsideration.

(c) If both houses disapprove the governor's recommendations, the bill shall be returned to the governor for his reconsideration.

JOINT RULES

(d) If one house disapproves the governor's recommendations and the other house approves, then either house may request a conference committee which may be a free conference committee.

(i) If both houses adopt a conference committee report, the bill in accordance with the report shall be returned to the governor for his reconsideration.

(ii) If a conference committee fails to reach agreement or if its report is not adopted by both houses, the governor's recommendations shall be considered not approved and the bill shall be returned to the governor for further consideration.

H. Transmittal of Bills -- Revenue and Appropriation Bills

6-33. Each house shall transmit to the other with any bill all relevant papers. When a house bill is transmitted from the House of Representatives to the Senate, the secretary of the Senate shall give a dated receipt for the bill to the chief clerk of the House. When a Senate bill is transmitted to the House of Representatives, the chief clerk of the House shall give a dated receipt to the secretary of the Senate.

JOINT RULES

6-34. No bill, except for appropriation bills, revenue bills, and amendments considered by joint committee, need be acted upon (save for reference to a committee by the presiding officer) if transmitted from one house to the other after the 45th legislative day, but shall be held pending in the house to which it is transmitted unless two-thirds of the members present and voting determine that the bill shall be acted upon. Amendments, except to appropriation bills and revenue bills, shall likewise be deferred for consideration if transmitted after the 70th legislative day.

A revenue bill is one which would either increase or decrease tax collections.

Revenue bills originating in the Senate shall be transmitted to the House on or before the 60th day, unless two-thirds of the members present and voting in the House determine that the bill may be transmitted after the 60th day. House amendments to such bills shall be transmitted by the House to the Senate on or before the 70th day unless two-thirds of the members present and voting in the Senate determine that such an amendment may be transmitted after the 70th day.

Appropriation and revenue bills originating in the House shall be transmitted to the Senate on or before the 70th day unless two-thirds of the members present and voting in the Senate determine that the bill may be transmitted after the 70th day. Senate amendments to such bills shall be transmitted by the Senate to the House on or before the 85th legislative day unless two-thirds of the members present and voting in the House determine that such an amendment may be transmitted after the 85th day.

Interim study resolutions, bills repealing or directing the amendment or adoption of administrative rules, and joint resolutions advising or requesting the repeal, amendment, or adoption of administrative rules may be transmitted at any time during a session.

6-35. When a bill has received its third reading or has been rejected, the house that considered the bill shall as soon as possible transmit it to the other house with notice of its action.

I. Fiscal Notes

6-36. All bills reported out of a committee of the legislature having an effect on the revenues, expenditures, or fiscal liability of the state, except appropriation measures carrying specific dollar amounts, shall include a fiscal note incorporating an estimate of such effect. The Legislative Council staff shall indicate at the top of each bill prepared for introduction that a fiscal note may be necessary under this rule. Fiscal notes shall be requested by the presiding officer of either house, who shall determine the need for the note at the time of introduction, based on the Legislative Council staff recommendation.

The state budget director, in cooperation with the agency or agencies affected by the bill, is responsible for the preparation of the fiscal note and shall return the same within six days, unless further time is granted by the presiding officer or committee making the request based upon a written statement from the budget director that additional time is necessary to properly prepare the note.

A completed fiscal note shall be submitted by the budget director to the presiding officer who requested it, who shall refer it to the committee considering the bill. All fiscal notes shall be reproduced and placed on the members' desks.

Fiscal notes shall, where possible, show in dollar amounts the estimated increase or decrease in revenues or expenditures, costs which may be absorbed without additional funds, and long-range financial implications. No comment or opinion relative to merits of the bill shall be included; however, technical or mechanical defects may be noted.

A fiscal note also may be requested on a bill and on an amendment by:

(1) a committee considering the bill, or

(2) a majority of the members of the house in which the bill is to be considered, at the time of second reading, or

(3) the chief sponsor through the presiding officer.

The budget director shall make available on request to any member of the legislature all background information used in developing a fiscal note (Title 5, chapter 4, part 2, MCA).

JOINT RULES

CHAPTER 7 Committees

7-1. The committee on legislative administration of each house shall consider all matters concerned with seating, mileage and expenses, legislative employees, the control of the legislative property, and the budgeting for and expenditure of appropriations for the operation of the legislature, in cooperation with the Legislative Council staff.

7-2. Upon request of any member of the house in which a bill is pending, a standing committee shall submit a written report in triplicate on any bill or matter referred to it within seven days after the request, unless, at the request of the committee and for good cause shown, further time is granted by the house concerned.

7-3. If the members of a committee cannot agree on a report, the majority and minority of the committee present at a committee meeting may submit separate reports. Only one minority report may be submitted. Such reports shall be entered at length on the journal, unless otherwise ordered by the house concerned.

7-4. All committees, joint committees, and subcommittees shall keep minutes of their meetings. The chairman of each such committee must designate a secretary to take and transcribe minutes. The chairman must authenticate the minutes by his signature. At the close of the session, the chairman shall turn the original and two complete copies of the minutes over to the chief clerk of the House or secretary of the Senate. The original minutes shall be delivered to the historical society. The Legislative Council and the law library shall each be given one copy of the minutes.

7-5. The committee on bills and journal, the rules committee, and conference committees may report at any time, except during a call of the house or when a vote is being taken. Reports from the bills and journal committee shall stand approved without formal action.

7-6. All bills providing for an appropriation of public money may first be considered by a joint committee composed of the members of the Senate committee on finance and claims and the House committee on appropriations, and then by each separately. Meetings of the joint committee shall be held upon call of the chairman of the House committee on appropriations who shall be chairman of the joint committee.

JOINT RULES

7-7. The chairman of each committee has general control and direction of the hall and committee room of the committee over which he presides, subject to the control of the presiding officer under Rule 1-3. Except as provided in Joint Rule 7-6, the chairman of the Senate committee shall be chairman of all joint committees.

7-8. If either house requests a conference and appoints a committee for the purpose of discussing an amendment on which the Senate and the House of Representatives cannot agree, the other house shall appoint a committee for the same purpose. The time and place of all conference committee meetings shall be agreed upon by their chairman and be announced from the rostrum. This announcement is in order at any time. Failure to make this announcement shall not affect the validity of the legislation. The conference committees, having conferred, shall report to their respective houses the result of their conference. A conference committee shall confine itself to the disputed amendment.

If either house requests a free conference committee and the other house concurs, appointments will be made the same as above. A free conference committee may discuss a bill in its entirety and is not confined to a particular amendment.

7-9. In joint committees other than conference committees, members vote individually and not by houses. Because conference committees are joint meetings of separate committees, in conference committees the committees from each house vote separately. A majority of each committee must agree before any action may be taken unless otherwise specified by individual house rules.

7-10. Conference committee reports must give clerical instructions for enrolling by referring to the reference bill version.

When a conference committee report is filed with the secretary of the Senate or chief clerk of the House of Representatives, the same shall be read under Order of Business No. 3, select committees, and placed on the calendar for consideration on second reading. If recommended favorably by the Committee of the Whole, it may be considered on third reading the same legislative day. On the final legislative day a conference committee report shall be placed on the calendar for immediate consideration on second reading and shall be further considered on third reading the same legislative day. If a conference committee report is adopted on third reading and the bill is of a type requiring more than a majority vote for passage, the bill shall again be placed on third reading in each house. This third reading vote must be used to determine if the required number of votes has been cast.

JOINT RULES

7-11. Accredited press representatives may not be excluded from any public legislative meeting or hearing and may not be prohibited from taking photographs, televising, or recording the committee or house hearings, subject to the discretion of the presiding officer in all matters of decorum and order.

7-12. A committee block scheduling system will be implemented in the Senate and House of Representatives. The schedule will be coordinated between houses and will be adjusted according to the legislature's work load.

JOINT RULES

CHAPTER 8 Rules and Journal

8-1. Each house shall keep a journal of its proceedings and may, in its discretion, from time to time, publish the same, and the ayes and noes on any question shall, at the request of any two members, be entered on the journal.

8-2. The proceedings of each house which shall be entered on its journal include:

(1) the number of each bill when it is introduced and subsequently considered;

(2) every motion and the name of the member making it;

(3) proposed constitutional amendments which have been voted for by two-thirds of the members (Montana Constitution, Art. XIV, Sec. 8);

(4) committee reports;

(5) roll call votes;

(6) messages from the governor and the other house;

(7) an entry of the oath taken by the members (Sec. 5-2-214, MCA).

JOINT RULES

The title of each bill shall be listed in the index of the permanent journals.

8-3. The bills and journal committee of each house shall supply the Legislative Council with the contents of the daily journal to be stored on an automated system, examine its journal, distribute a daily journal to all legislators, order correction of any errors, and report each legislative day immediately after roll call.

8-4. The journal of the Senate must be authenticated by the signature of the president, and the journal of the House of Representatives, by the signature of the speaker. The distribution of the completed journals shall be made by the Legislative Council (Sec. 5-11-201 through 5-11-203, MCA).

8-5. (1) A joint rule may be repealed or amended only with the concurrence of both houses, under the procedures adopted by each house for the repeal or amendment of its own rules.

(2) A joint rule governing the procedure for handling bills may be temporarily suspended by the consent of two-thirds of the members of either house, insofar as it applies to the house suspending it.

(3) Any rules committee report recommending a change in joint rules shall be referred to the other house for concurrent action. Any new rule or any change in the rules of either house shall be transmitted to the other house for informational purposes.

8-6. Mason's Manual of Legislative Procedure governs the proceedings of the Senate and House of Representatives in all cases not covered by these rules.

8-7. The Legislative Council shall codify and publish in one volume the rules of the Senate, the rules of the House of Representatives, and the joint rules of the Senate and House of Representatives. Upon adoption, the secretary of the Senate and the chief clerk of the House of Representatives shall provide the office of the Legislative Council with one copy of all motions or resolutions amending Senate, House, or joint rules, and with copies of all minutes and reports of the rules committees. After the rules have been published, the Legislative Council shall distribute copies as directed by the Senate and House of Representatives.

8-8. Pursuant to the authority established in Sections 5-11-211 through

JOINT RULES

5-11-214, MCA, the following fee schedule is established for the legislative proceedings:

One complete set of the proceedings of any regular session, $400; an additional $150 is required for mailing.

One complete set of the proceedings of any special session, $25.

Single copies of bills, resolutions, amendments, status sheets, or other documents may be purchased according to the length of the document as follows:

101-200 pages.....$2.00

Over 200 pages.....$4.00

JOINT RULES

CHAPTER 9 Voting Procedure

9-1. Except as provided in Joint Rule 9-2, every member present when a question is put shall vote unless the house of which he is a member excuses him.

9-2. A member who has a personal or private interest in any measure or bill proposed or pending before the legislature shall disclose the fact to the house of which he is a member.

9-3. Amendments to the constitution may be proposed by any member of the legislature. If adopted by an affirmative roll call vote of two-thirds of all the members of the legislature, the amendment shall be deemed approved by the legislature (Montana Constitution, Art. XIV, Sec. 8).

9-4. When a measure requiring the concurrence of two-thirds of the members is under consideration, a majority vote is sufficient to decide any question relating to the measure short of third reading.

9-5. A roll call vote shall be taken on the request of two members, if the request occurs before the vote is taken.

JOINT RULES

9-6. On a roll call vote the names of the members shall be called alphabetically, unless an electronic voting system is used. A member may not vote or change his vote after the decision is announced from the chair. A member may not explain his vote until after the decision is announced from the chair.

9-7. (1) On third reading the question shall be stated as follows: "Senate (or House) bill number having been read three several times, the question is, shall the bill pass (or be concurred in)."

(2) If an electronic voting system is used, the signal shall be sounded after the question is stated and then the presiding officer shall state "Those in favor vote yes and those opposed vote no." After a reasonable pause the presiding officer asks "Has every member voted?" (reasonable pause) "Does any member wish to change his or her vote?" (reasonable pause) "The clerk (secretary) will now record the vote."

9-8. Two members may pair on a measure that will be determined by a majority vote. On a measure requiring a two-thirds vote for adoption three members may pair, with two members for the measure and one member against. Pairing is

9-9. An agreement to pair must be in writing and dated and signed by the members agreeing to be bound, and must specify the duration of the pair. When an agreement to pair is filed with the secretary of the Senate or chief clerk of the House of Representatives, it shall bind the members signing until the expiration of time for which it was signed, unless the paired members sooner appear and ask that the agreement be cancelled.

9-10. Every vote of each member of the legislature on each substantive question in the legislature, in any committee, or in Committee of the Whole shall be recorded and made public. On final passage of any bill or joint resolution the vote shall be taken by ayes and noes and the names entered on the journal. Roll call votes shall be taken by ayes and noes and the names entered on the journal on adopting an adverse committee report and on those motions made in Committee of the Whole referred to in Joint Rule 6-26(1)(a) through (d). A roll call vote shall be taken on non-substantive questions on the request of two members, who may likewise on any vote, request that the ayes and noes be spread upon the journal. Roll call votes and other votes which are to be made public but are not specifically required to be spread upon the journal shall be entered in the minutes of the appropriate committee or of the appropriate house and a copy of such minutes shall be filed with the Montana state historical society (Montana Constitution, Art. V, Sec. 11(2)).

JOINT RULES

CHAPTER 10 Consent Calendar

10-1. Noncontroversial bills and simple and joint resolutions qualifying for the consent calendar may be processed by a standing committee according to the following provisions:

(1) To be eligible for the consent calendar, the legislation must receive unanimous vote by the members of the standing committee in attendance (do pass, do pass as amended). In addition a motion must be made and passed unanimously to place the legislation on the consent calendar and this action reflected in the committee report. No appropriation or revenue bills may be recommended for the consent calendar.

(2) The legislation is then sent to be processed and reproduced as a third reading version and specifically marked as a "consent calendar" item.

(3) Legislation shall be immediately posted (as soon as it is received as a third reading version) on the consent calendar and must remain there for one legislative day before consideration under Order of Business No. 11, Special Orders of the Day. At that time, the presiding officer will announce consideration of the consent calendar and allow "reasonable time" for questions and answers upon request. No debate will be allowed.

(4) Any three members may submit written objections and the legislation must then be removed from the consent calendar and added to the regular second reading board.

(5) Consent calendar legislation will be voted on following third reading.

(6) Legislation on the consent calendar will be voted on individually with the roll call vote spread on the journal as the final vote on those bills and resolutions.

(7) Legislation passed on the consent calendar will then be transmitted to the second house.

JOINT RULES

CHAPTER 11

Statement of Legislative Intent

11-1. Definition. For the purpose of compliance with the Legislative History Act (Title 5, chapter 4, part 4, MCA), a statement of legislative intent regarding a bill will express the common understanding of those components of the legislature voting on the bill. This statement differs from a purpose clause, which is used in general to describe the broad overall objectives of a bill, while a statement of intent is used to guide the details of interpretation by those charged with implementation of the bill and is phrased in terms of contingencies, examples, or other matter inappropriate for expression as statutory language.

11-2. Limitation. A statement of intent may not accompany any bill that does not statutorily require one unless a committee (standing committee, committee of the whole or conference committee) agrees by a two-thirds vote to attach the statement.

11-3. Statement of intent to accompany bill -- when -- how. A statement shall accompany a bill as follows:

(1) Statements of intent are required for bills delegating rulemaking or licensing authority. The statement shall be stored on ALTER, printed, and reproduced on paper of the same color and in the same manner as the bill, and shall be attached to the bill. The statement shall be reproduced on paper of the same color as the bill and attached to the bill on all subsequent reproductions of the bill.

(2) The standing committee of the house in which the bill originates is responsible for authoring a statement of intent for a bill requiring one.

11-4. Modification. Any committee subsequently considering the bill may amend a previous statement. The statement of intent will be reflected in the history of the bill.

11-5. Conference committee on intent only. When the second house concurs in a bill without amendments but amends or supersedes a previous statement of intent, the bill may not be enrolled until both houses have agreed on a statement of intent. If the statement is attached to a bill that does not statutorily require one, the conference committee can delete the statement in its entirety.

A new statement of intent written by the second house will be processed in the same manner as a second house amendment.

A regular conference committee may be appointed solely to resolve differences of intent if the second house's statement of intent is not so accepted.

SENATE RULES

The first part of the paper discusses the importance of the study of the history of the English language. It is noted that the English language has a long and rich history, and that the study of its development is essential for a full understanding of the language. The paper then goes on to discuss the various factors that have influenced the development of the English language, including the influence of other languages, the influence of social and cultural changes, and the influence of technological advances.

CHAPTER 1

Presiding Officer -- Decorum, Order, and Debate

Sl-1. The senate shall choose a president from its membership who shall be the presiding officer. In case of the absence or disqualification of the president, the president pro tempore of the senate shall perform the duties of the president until the vacancy is filled or the disability removed.

Sl-2. The senate shall, at the beginning of each regular session, and at such other times as may be necessary, elect one of its members president pro tempore. The senate shall choose its other officers and shall be the judge of the elections, returns, and qualifications of its members.

Sl-3. The president and president pro tempore, when acting as presiding officer of the senate, shall vote as any other member of the senate.

Sl-4. The president may name a senator to perform the duties of the chair when the president pro tempore is not present in the senate chamber. The senator who is so named is vested during such time with all the powers of the president, but he does not lose the right to vote on any question while pre-

Sl-5. No senator shall speak more than twice on any one motion or question without unanimous consent of the senate, unless he has introduced or proposed the motion or question under debate, in which case he may speak twice and also close the debate. However, a senator who has spoken shall not speak again on the same motion or question to the exclusion of a senator who has not spoken.

Sl-6. On order of business No. 8 (second reading of bills), in addition to other methods a recorded vote may be made in the following manner: the chair may call for a voice vote to accept or reject a question. If the vote is other than unanimous, the chair may ask that the lesser number on the question indicate their vote by standing. The secretary will then record the vote of those standing. The chair may then rule that unless excused those not standing and present have voted on the prevailing side of the question and that their vote be recorded as such. If there was a unanimous voice vote, all those present will be recorded as having voted for the question.

Sl-7. Only the following persons may be admitted to the floor of the senate during sessions: legislators, legislative officers and employees whose presence is necessary for the conduct of the business of the session, accredited members of the press, radio, and television, and former legislators. The rules committee shall be allowed to make exceptions for visiting dignitaries.

SENATE RULES

CHAPTER 4 Order of Business

S4-1. On order of business No. 2 (reports of standing committees), no debate shall be had on any report unless a minority report or a report without recommendation has been submitted. Any member seeking a reconsideration of the senate's action on the adoption of a committee report shall do so on order of business No. 6 by motion to reconsider. Any member may make such motion and need not have voted on the prevailing side. This rule shall apply notwithstanding any joint rule to the contrary.

CONSTITUTION

PREAMBLE

We the people of Montana grateful to God for the quiet beauty of our state, the grandeur of our mountains, the vastness of our rolling plains, and desiring to improve the quality of life, equality of opportunity and to secure the blessings of liberty for this and future generations do ordain and establish this constitution.

ARTICLE I COMPACT WITH THE UNITED STATES

All provisions of the enabling act of Congress (approved February 22, 1889, 25 Stat. 676), as amended and of Ordinance No. 1, appended to the Constitution of the state of Montana and approved February 22, 1889, including the agreement and declaration that all lands owned or held by any Indian or Indian tribes shall remain under the absolute jurisdiction and control of the congress of the United States, continue in full force and effect until revoked by the consent of the United States and the people of Montana.

ARTICLE II
DECLARATION OF RIGHTS

Section 1. Popular sovereignty. All political power is vested in and derived from the people. All government of right originates with the people, is founded upon their will only, and is instituted solely for the good of the whole.

Section 2. Self-government. The people have the exclusive right of governing themselves as a free, sovereign, and independent state. They may alter or abolish the constitution and form of government whenever they deem it necessary.

Section 3. Inalienable rights. All persons are born free and have certain inalienable rights. They include the right to a clean and healthful environment and the rights of pursuing life's basic necessities, enjoying and defending their lives and liberties, acquiring, possessing and protecting property, and seeking their safety, health and happiness in all lawful ways. In enjoying these rights, all persons recognize corresponding responsibilities.

Section 4. Individual dignity. The dignity of the human being is inviolable. No person shall be denied the equal protection of the laws. Neither the state nor any person, firm, corporation, or institution shall discriminate against any person in the exercise of his civil or political rights on account of race, color, sex, culture, social origin or condition, or political or religious ideas.

CONSTITUTION

Art. II, § 7

Section 5. Freedom of religion. The state shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion or prohibiting the free exercise thereof.

Section 6. Freedom of assembly. The people shall have the right peaceably to assemble, petition for redress or peaceably protest governmental action.

Section 7. Freedom of speech, expression, and press. No law shall be passed impairing the freedom of speech or expression. Every person shall be free to speak or publish whatever he will on any subject, being responsible for all abuse of that liberty. In all suits and prosecutions for libel or slander the truth thereof may be given in evidence; and the jury, under the direction of the court, shall determine the law and the facts.

Section 8. Right of participation. The public has the right to expect governmental agencies to afford such reasonable opportunity for citizen participation in the operation of the agencies prior to the final decision as may be provided by law.

Section 9. Right to know. No person shall be deprived of the right to examine documents or to observe the deliberations of all public bodies or agencies of state government and its subdivisions, except in cases in which the demand of individual privacy clearly exceeds the merits of public disclosure.

Section 10. Right of privacy. The right of individual privacy is essential to the well-being of a free society and shall not be infringed without the showing of a compelling state interest.

Section 11. Searches and seizures. The people shall be secure in their persons, papers, homes and effects from unreasonable searches and seizures. No warrant to search any place, or seize any person or thing shall issue without describing the place to be searched or the person or thing to be seized, or without probable cause, supported by oath or affirmation reduced to writing.

Section 12. Right to bear arms. The right of any person to keep or bear arms in defense of his own home, person, and property, or in aid of the civil power when thereto legally summoned, shall not be called in question, but nothing herein contained shall be held to permit the carrying of concealed weapons.

Section 13. Right of suffrage. All elections shall be free and open, and no power, civil or military, shall at any time interfere to prevent the free exercise of the right of suffrage.

Section 14. Adult rights. A person 18 years of age or older is an adult for all purposes, except that the legislature or the people by initiative may establish an age of not more than 19 as the legal age for consuming or possessing alcoholic beverages.

Section 15. Rights of persons not adults. The rights of persons under 18 years of age shall include, but not be limited to, all the fundamental rights of this Article unless specifically precluded by laws which enhance the protection of such persons.

Section 16. The administration of justice. Courts of justice shall be open to every person, and speedy remedy afforded for every injury of person, property, or character. No person shall be deprived of this full legal redress for injury incurred in employment for which another person may be liable except as to fellow employees and his immediate employer who hired him if such immediate employer provides coverage under the Workmen's Compensation Laws of this state. Right and justice shall be administered without sale, denial, or delay.

Section 17. Due process of law. No person shall be deprived of life, liberty, or property without due process of law.

Section 18. State subject to suit. The state, counties, cities, towns, and all other local governmental entities shall have no immunity from suit for injury to a person or property, except as may be specifically provided by law by a 2/3 vote of each house of the legislature.

Section 19. Habeas corpus. The privilege of the writ of habeas corpus shall never be suspended.

Section 20. Initiation of proceedings. (1) Criminal offenses within the jurisdiction of any court inferior to the district court shall be prosecuted by complaint. All criminal actions in district court, except those on appeal, shall be prosecuted either by information, after examination and commitment by a magistrate or after leave granted by the court, or by indictment without such examination, commitment or leave.

(2) A grand jury shall consist of eleven persons, of whom eight must concur to find an indictment. A grand jury shall be drawn and summoned only at the discretion and order of the district judge.

Section 21. Bail. All persons shall be bailable by sufficient sureties, except for capital offenses, when the proof is evident or the presumption great.

Section 22. Excessive sanctions. Excessive bail shall not be required, or excessive fines imposed, or cruel and unusual punishments inflicted.

Section 23. Detention. No person shall be imprisoned for the purpose of securing his testimony in any criminal proceeding longer than may be necessary in order to take his deposition. If he can give security for his appearance at the time of trial, he shall be discharged upon giving the same; if he cannot give security, his deposition shall be taken in the manner provided by law, and in the presence of the accused and his counsel, or without their presence, if they shall fail to attend the examination after reasonable notice of the time and place thereof.

Section 24. Rights of the accused. In all criminal prosecutions the accused shall have the right to appear and defend in person and by counsel; to demand the nature and cause of the accusation; to meet the witnesses against him face to face; to have process to compel the attendance of witnesses in his behalf, and a speedy public trial by an impartial jury of the county or district in which the offense is alleged to have been committed, subject to the right of the state to have a change of venue for any of the causes for which the defendant may obtain the same.

Section 25. Self-incrimination and double jeopardy. No person shall be compelled to testify against himself in a criminal proceeding. No person shall be again put in jeopardy for the same offense previously tried in any jurisdiction.

Section 26. Trial by jury. The right of trial by jury is secured to all and shall remain inviolate. But upon default of appearance or by consent of the parties expressed in such manner as the law may provide, all cases may be tried without a jury or before fewer than the number of jurors provided by law. In all civil actions, two-thirds of the jury may render a verdict, and a verdict so rendered shall have the same force and effect as if all had concurred therein. In all criminal actions, the verdict shall be unanimous.

Section 27. Imprisonment for debt. No person shall be imprisoned for debt except in the manner provided by law, upon refusal to deliver up his estate for the benefit of his creditors, or in cases of tort, where there is strong presumption of fraud.

Section 28. Rights of the convicted. Laws for the punishment of crime shall be founded on the principles of prevention and reformation. Full rights are restored by termination of state supervision for any offense against the state.

Section 29. Eminent domain. Private property shall not be taken or damaged for public use without just compensation to the full extent of the loss having been first made to or paid into court for the owner. In the event of litigation, just compensation shall include necessary expenses of litigation to be awarded by the court when the private property owner prevails.

Section 30. Treason and descent of estates. Treason against the state shall consist only in levying war against it, or in adhering to its enemies, giving them aid and comfort; no person shall be convicted of treason except on the testimony of two witnesses to the same overt act, or on his confession in open court; no person shall be attainted of treason or felony by the legislature; no conviction shall cause the loss of property to the relatives or heirs of the convicted. The estates of suicides shall descend or vest as in cases of natural death.

Section 33. Importation of armed persons. No armed person or persons or armed body of men shall be brought into this state for the preservation of the peace, or the suppression of domestic violence, except upon the application of the legislature, or of the governor when the legislature cannot be convened.

Section 34. Unenumerated rights. The enumeration in this constitution of certain rights shall not be construed to deny, impair, or disparage others retained by the people.

ARTICLE III
GENERAL GOVERNMENT

Section 1. Separation of powers. The power of the government of this state is divided into three distinct branches--legislative, executive, and judicial. No person or persons charged with the exercise of power properly belonging to one branch shall exercise any power properly belonging to either of the others, except as in this constitution expressly directed or permitted.

Section 2. Continuity of government. The seat of government shall be in Helena, except during periods of emergency resulting from disasters or enemy attack. The legislature may enact laws to insure the continuity of government during a period of emergency without regard for other provisions of the constitution. They shall be effective only during the period of emergency that affects a particular office or governmental operation.

Section 3. Oath of office. Members of the legislature and all executive, ministerial and judicial officers, shall take and subscribe the following oath or affirmation, before they enter upon the duties of their offices: "I do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will support, protect and defend the constitution of the United States, and the constitution of the state of Montana, and that I will discharge the duties of my office with fidelity (so help me God)." No other oath, declaration, or test shall be required as a qualification for any office or public trust.

Section 4. Initiative. (1) The people may enact laws by initiative on all matters except appropriations of money and local or special laws.

(2) Initiative petitions must contain the full text of the proposed measure, shall be signed by at least five percent of the qualified electors in each of at least one-third of the legislative representative districts and the total number of signers must be at least five percent of the total qualified electors of the state. Petitions shall be filed with the secretary of state at least three months prior to the election at which the measure will be voted upon.

(3) The sufficiency of the initiative petition shall not be questioned after the election is held.

Section 5. Referendum. (1) The people may approve or reject by referendum any act of the legislature except an appropriation of money. A referendum shall be held either upon order by the legislature or upon petition signed by at least five percent of the qualified electors in each of at least one-third of the legislative representative districts. The total number of signers must be at least five percent of the qualified electors of the state. A referendum petition shall be filed with the secretary of state no later than six months after adjournment of the legislature which passed the act.

(2) An act referred to the people is in effect until suspended by petitions signed by at least 15 percent of the qualified electors in a majority of the legislative representative districts. If so suspended the act shall become operative only after it is approved at an election, the result of which has been determined and declared as provided by law.

Section 6. Elections. The people shall vote on initiative and referendum measures at the general election unless the legislature orders a special election.

Section 7. Number of electors. The number of qualified electors required in each legislative representative district and in the state shall be determined by the number of votes cast for the office of governor in the preceding general election.

Section 8. Prohibition. The provisions of this Article do not apply to CONSTITUTIONAL REVISION, Article XIV.

Section 9. Gambling. All forms of gambling, lotteries, and gift enterprises are prohibited unless authorized by acts of the legislature or by the people through initiative or referendum.

ARTICLE IV SUFFRAGE AND ELECTIONS

Section 1. Ballot. All elections by the people shall be by secret ballot.

Section 2. Qualified elector. Any citizen of the United States 18 years of age or older who meets the registration and residence requirements provided by law is a qualified elector unless he is serving a sentence for a felony in a penal institution or is of unsound mind, as determined by a court.

Section 3. Elections. The legislature shall provide by law the requirements for residence, registration, absentee voting, and administration of elections. It may provide for a system of poll booth registration, and shall insure the purity of elections and guard against abuses of the electoral process.

Section 4. Eligibility for public office. Any qualified elector is eligible to any public office except as otherwise provided in this constitution. The legislature may provide additional qualifications but no person convicted of a felony shall be eligible to hold office until his final discharge from state supervision.

Section 5. Result of elections. In all elections held by the people, the person or persons receiving the largest number of votes shall be declared elected.

Section 6. Privilege from arrest. A qualified elector is privileged from arrest at polling places and in going to and returning therefrom, unless apprehended in the commission of a felony or a breach of the peace.

ARTICLE V
THE LEGISLATURE

Section 1. Power and structure. The legislative power is vested in a legislature consisting of a senate and a house of representatives. The people reserve to themselves the powers of initiative and referendum.

Section 2. Size. The size of the legislature shall be provided by law, but the senate shall not have more than 50 or fewer than 40 members and the house shall not have more than 100 or fewer than 80 members.

Section 3. Election and terms. A member of the house of representatives shall be elected for a term of two years and a member of the senate for a term of four years each to begin on a date provided by law. One-half of the senators shall be elected every two years.

Section 4. Qualifications. A candidate for the legislature shall be a resident of the state for at least one year next preceding the general election. For six months next preceding the general election, he shall be a resident of the county if it contains one or more districts or of the district if it contains all or parts of more than one county.

Section 5. Compensation. Each member of the legislature shall receive compensation for his services and allowances provided by law. No legislature may fix its own compensation.

Section 6. Sessions. The legislature shall meet each odd-numbered year in regular session of not more than 90 legislative days. Any legislature may increase the limit on the length of any subsequent session. The legislature may be convened in special sessions by the governor or at the written request of a majority of the members.

Section 7. Vacancies. A vacancy in the legislature shall be filled by special election for the unexpired term unless otherwise provided by law.

Section 8. Immunity. A member of the legislature is privileged from arrest during attendance at sessions of the legislature and in going to and returning therefrom, unless apprehended in the commission of a felony or a breach of the peace. He shall not be questioned in any other place for any speech or debate in the legislature.

Section 9. Disqualification. No member of the legislature shall, during the term for which he shall have been elected, be appointed to any civil office under the state; and no member of congress, or other person holding an office (except notary public, or the militia) under the United States or this state, shall be a member of the legislature during his continuance in office.

Section 10. Organization and procedure. (1) Each house shall judge the election and qualifications of its members. It may by law vest in the courts the power to try and determine contested elections. Each house shall choose its officers from among its members, keep a journal, and make rules for its proceedings. Each house may expel or punish a member for good cause shown with the concurrence of two-thirds of all its members.

(2) A majority of each house constitutes a quorum. A smaller number may adjourn from day to day and compel attendance of absent members.

(3) The sessions of the legislature and of the committee of the whole, all committee meetings, and all hearings shall be open to the public.

(4) The legislature may establish a legislative council and other interim committees. The legislature shall establish a legislative post-audit committee which shall supervise post-auditing duties provided by law.

(5) Neither house shall, without the consent of the other, adjourn or recess for more than three days or to any place other than that in which the two houses are sitting.

Section 11. Bills. (1) A law shall be passed by bill which shall not be so altered or amended on its passage through the legislature as to change its original purpose. No bill shall become law except by a vote of the majority of all members present and voting.

(2) Every vote of each member of the legislature on each substantive question in the legislature, in any committee, or in committee of the whole shall be recorded and made public. On final passage, the vote shall be taken by ayes and noes and the names entered on the journal.

CONSTITUTION

Art. V, § 12

(3) Each bill, except general appropriation bills and bills for the codification and general revision of the laws, shall contain only one subject, clearly expressed in its title. If any subject is embraced in any act and is not expressed in the title, only so much of the act not so expressed is void.

(4) A general appropriation bill shall contain only appropriations for the ordinary expenses of the legislative, executive, and judicial branches, for interest on the public debt, and for public schools. Every other appropriation shall be made by a separate bill, containing but one subject.

(5) No appropriation shall be made for religious, charitable, industrial, educational, or benevolent purposes to any private individual, private association, or private corporation not under control of the state.

(6) A law may be challenged on the ground of noncompliance with this section only within two years after its effective date.

Section 12. Local and special legislation. The legislature shall not pass a special or local act when a general act is, or can be made, applicable.

Section 13. Impeachment. (1) The governor, executive officers, heads of state departments, judicial officers, and such other officers as may be provided by law are subject to impeachment, and upon conviction shall be removed from office. Other proceedings for removal from public office for cause may be provided by law.

(2) The legislature shall provide for the manner, procedure, and causes for impeachment and may select the senate as tribunal.

(3) Impeachment shall be brought only by a two-thirds vote of the house. The tribunal hearing the charges shall convict only by a vote of two-thirds or more of its members.

(4) Conviction shall extend only to removal from office, but the party, whether convicted or acquitted, shall also be liable to prosecution according to law.

Section 14. Districting and apportionment. (1) The state shall be divided into as many districts as there are members of the house, and each district shall elect one representative. Each senate district shall be composed of two adjoining house districts, and shall elect one senator. Each district shall consist of compact and contiguous territory. All districts shall be as nearly equal in population as is practicable.

(2) In the legislative session following ratification of this constitution and thereafter in each session preceding each federal population census, a commission of five citizens, none of whom may be public officials, shall be selected to prepare a plan for redistricting and reapportioning the state into legislative and congressional districts. The majority and minority leaders of each house shall each designate one commissioner. Within 20 days after their designation, the four commissioners shall select the fifth member, who shall serve as chairman of the commission. If the four members fail to select the fifth member within the time prescribed, a majority of the supreme court shall select him.

(3) The commission shall submit its plan to the legislature at the first regular session after its appointment or after the census figures are available. Within 30 days after submission, the legislature shall return the plan to the commission with its recommendations. Within 30 days thereafter, the commission shall file its final plan with the secretary of state and it shall become law. The commission is then dissolved.

Section 6. Vacancy in office.

(1) If the office of lieutenant governor becomes vacant by his succession to the office of governor, or by his death, resignation, or disability as determined by law, the governor shall appoint a qualified person to serve in that office for the remainder of the term. If both the elected governor and the elected lieutenant governor become unable to serve in the office of governor, succession to the respective offices shall be as provided by law for the period until the next general election. Then, a governor and lieutenant governor shall be elected to fill the remainder of the original term.

(2) If the office of secretary of state, attorney general, auditor, or superintendent of public instruction becomes vacant by death, resignation, or disability as determined by law, the governor shall appoint a qualified person to serve in that office until the next general election and until a successor is elected and qualified. The person elected to fill a vacancy shall hold the office until the expiration of the term for which his predecessor was elected.

Section 7. 20 departments. All executive and administrative offices, boards, bureaus, commissions, agencies and instrumentalities of the executive branch (except for the office of governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, attorney general, superintendent of public instruction, and auditor) and their respective functions, powers, and duties, shall be allocated by law among not more than 20 principal departments so as to provide an orderly arrangement in the administrative organization of state government. The governor shall submit to the legislature at a time fixed by law, a budget for the ensuing fiscal period setting forth in detail for all operating funds the proposed expendi-

Section 10. Veto power. (1) Each bill passed by the legislature, except bills proposing amendments to the Montana constitution, bills ratifying proposed amendments to the United States constitution, resolutions, and initiative and referendum measures, shall be submitted to the governor for his signature. If he does not sign or veto the bill within five days after its delivery to him if the legislature is in session or within 25 days if the legislature is adjourned, it shall become law. The governor shall return a vetoed bill to the legislature with a statement of his reasons therefor.
